

Please keep K-Love on the air. I listen to K-Love to and from work and without it I would not be able to receive the same good wholesome programming that they provide. The station promotes good values and reliance on God which, I believe, is in the public interest to cultivate good moral stance in news and music.